

ADVANCED* contra and square dance
in Kalamazoo
Sat., April 8, 2017, 7:30-10:30
Band: Wild Rumpus
Caller: Kathy Anderson

What do you get when percussionist Bob Douglas from the Coffee Zombies joins forces with Karl and Deborah Clark-Colón of Changeling?

Wild Rumpus!! Don't miss this opportunity!

- They are Contra Music Unleashed -- Mad beats for dancers' feet.
- Let your feet fly, your heart sigh, and melt into the energy. They are:
- Deborah Clark Colón (fiddle, vocals),
- Bobby Douglas (drums, percussion, vocals), and
- Karl Clark Colón (guitar, vocals, shouting)
- Among them they have played for dancers for over fifty years and they know what you want in a dance. Something with the timeless beauty of tradition, with the pulse-pounding rhythms that remind you that you are alive now.

Kathy Anderson, a well-known and well-loved caller in Michigan, is a dance omnivore. She is known for interesting squares and quirky contras, and swift clear teaching. Her smooth delivery and intriguing repertoire make for an entertaining and engaging dance experience, filled with energy and fun!

Pricing: $9 CDK members / $6 students (13 and up, under 13 are free) / $11 others [donations really help us!]
*To see if an advanced dance is a good fit for you, please read more at <http://people.albion.edu/ram/cdk/#advanced>

Dance is held at the Oshtemo Grange Hall, 3234 N. 3rd St, Kalamazoo More info at <http://people.albion.edu/ram/cdk/>